

THE HAMPSHIRE CRICKET SOCIETY

Patrons: John Woodcock Shaun Udal James Tomlinson

NEW MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The Hampshire Cricket Society was formed in Basingstoke in 1975. Its aim is to provide a forum, particularly in the winter months, for anyone interested in cricket. Members are drawn from Hampshire and beyond, including Australia and Hong Kong. Six meetings are held between September and March, each with a speaker. Three evening meetings take place at the Ageas Bowl and three at Test Valley Golf Club near Basingstoke, two in the afternoon and one in the evening. In addition, the Ageas Bowl hosts an annual dinner with an after-dinner speaker in December for members and their guests.

The Society invites speakers from all aspects of cricket e.g. players, umpires, authors, administrators, commentators and statisticians. Each meeting includes a Q & A with the speaker. Notable past speakers include John Arlott, Rod Bransgrove, Graham Gooch, Derek Underwood, Jimmy Adams, James Tomlinson, Sean Irvine, Henry Olonga, Angus Fraser, Chris Lewis, Charlotte Edwards and David Millns. Vic Marks was the speaker at our 2019 Annual Dinner.

An informative newsletter is produced prior to each meeting and emailed to members.

If you are a cricket supporter, why not join other cricket enthusiasts to brighten up your winter months? Just complete the tear-off strip below and return it to the Society's Treasurer...
